f. Asked if the briefings of Presidential candidate Stevenson and Vice President Kefauver were proceeding satisfactorily and stated that he might volunteer to Mr. Stevenson now that he is back in the country he will be happy to brief Mr. Stevenson personally if Mr. Stevenson so desires.

Mr. Wisner:

Mr. Kirkpatrick:

a. Announced that the President's Board would be meeting on the 28th, 29th and 30th of November and that Mr. Sherman Kent and [] were scheduled to brief them.

b. Announced that in the present Charity Campaign Drive the Public Service Aid Society has raised approximately $4,000 so that it now has a total fund available of about $5,800. Approximately $1,000 has been spent to help employees in extreme difficulties and there are now a number of other cases deserving of such help. He noted that after a year of operation a ruling can be obtained from the Bureau of Internal Revenue establishing the fact that contributions to the Public Service Aid Society are tax deductible.
